Dear diary:

In the afternoon we went by underground to Notting Hill. We walked around Notting Hill and suddenly a person called Carmen and we had a problem with the hotel, so we waited for two hours for the teachers. We went to a Spanish bar, its name was Bar García. In the Bar García I drank two tiger nut milks. Then we went to a park near the meeting point. In the park there were some people and two of them were playing instruments. Then we played cards. Later Afonso arrived and we went with him to the hotel and we had some problems.

Dear diary:

In the morning we were late to have breakfast. Then we went to the Tower of London and I saw some weapons and armours and on the other side we saw the Queen's jewels. Then we went on boat on the river Thames. In the boat we saw some buildings and then we went to see the Big Ben. After that we went by underground to a place whose name I don't remember. In this place we ate and went shopping. When we went shopping I saw a man that looked like a statue. Then we went to Harrods walking. In Harrods everything is very expensive. Finally we went to the Hotel by underground.
